

Name _____ Date _____

Sarah had 8 fish in her aquarium.

She gave away 3 fish.

How many fish does Sarah have left?

$$\underline{\quad\quad} - \underline{\quad\quad} = \underline{\quad\quad} \text{ fish}$$

Sarah went to the pet store and bought 4 more fish.

How many fish does Sarah have now?

$$\underline{\quad\quad} + \underline{\quad\quad} = \underline{\quad\quad} \text{ fish}$$

John had 5 pears. He ate 3 pears and then received 6 more pears from his friend.

How many pears does John have now?

Emily had 9 carrots. She gave away 6 carrots to her friend, and then she bought 4 more carrots at the grocery store.

How many carrots does Emily have now?

